The focus of this year's Retreats is to embrace and experience the fulfillment of your Being aligned with Original Design. Your time at the home of Wings of Spirit will be devoted to moving beyond the content of the mind in order to experience the Essence of the indescribable, Eternal You.

The Retreats will uncover layered messages of heart-opening wisdom teachings found in Diadra's new book: Essence Speaks ~ The Book of Love, and reveal them to be the very nature of your own heart. This newest publication (scheduled to be available April 1, 2012), is a 17-year collection of transformational, Universal Truths received by Diadra from the omnipresent indwelling realm of the Cosmic Christ. Profound effects are being reported by those who bring a pure heart intention to the focus of these wisdom teachings.

Wings of Spirit is an "awe" inspiring environment, nestled high in the Appalachian mountains. When integrated with like-hearted participants, drawn together by Grace and Divine Appointment, there are no words to describe the illuminating awareness that individuals experience. These gatherings, small in nature (10 people maximum), prove to be intimate, powerful, and life changing.

Welcome Home, Beloved!

Quotes from Essence Speaks

"It is not possible to grasp with mental energy what is known in Heart space."

"You cannot step away from Me, for I Am the step you take."

"There is no greater love than Love Itself. You are That!"

"The eternal Life of the Divine makes Itself so loudly represented that nothing else can be "attended" to by the mind."

"There are no illusions, only ideas being true to themselves."

"Wishing wells pale in comparison to the living waters at the depth of soul."

"I love you beyond the word "love" does promise. I fathom Myself only through you and come to know me as I Am. I Am companioned by the knowing, and rejoiced in My expression of you. Be at peace, Beloved One. The multitudes are coming Home, and so are you."
